

BIGSPD
15th Annual Conference
LINCOLN 19th – 21st FEBRUARY 2014
AGENDA

Wednesday 19th February

12.15 – 13.15	Registration and Lunch (Bentley Hotel, foyer)
13.15 – 13.25	Welcome and Introduction – Steve Pearce
13.25 – 13.30	Opening Remarks: structure and content of the meeting – Peter Tyrer
13.30 – 14.15	Opening Plenary – Diamond Suite: Glenys Parry, Professor of Applied Psychological Therapies, University of Sheffield 'In harm's way: balancing risks and benefits in the psychological treatment of personality disorder'
14.15 – 14.30	Discussion and vote of thanks Presentation of Senior Scientist Award for 2013
14.30 – 15.45	WORKSHOPS
	Workshop 1 – Emerald Suite	Workshop 2 – Ruby Suite	Workshop 3 – Sapphire Suite
	Forensic case formulation (led by Mary McMurran and Caroline Logan)	Assessment of personality disorder in general mental health services (led by Mike Crawford)	Nidotherapy (led by Peter and Helen Tyrer)
15.45 – 17.00	Refreshments and film presentation by Carole Hayman (film maker) 'No one escapes' – Diamond Suite

17.00 – 18.40	Parallel Sessions
	Emerald Suite Chair: Jessica Yakeley	Ruby Suite Chair: Steve Pearce	Sapphire Suite Chair: Piyal Sen
	Symposium: ASPD in the Community Celia Taylor: Antisocial Personality Disorder and the Probation Service – A New Approach to an Old Role Jake Shaw & Philip Minoudis: The development of a screening tool for PD offenders Jessica Yakeley Managing and treating ASPD in the community: Furthering the PD Offender Strategy Anna Motz, The Reflections Group: A Pilot Group of Mentalisation-based Treatment for Men Diagnosed with Antisocial Personality Disorder: Developments Nine Months On Peter Tyrer, Nidothrapy in ASPD (10 mins)	Symposium: Research agenda for personality disorder Peter Tyrer: The Lancet series on personality disorder Mary McMurrans : The James Lind Alliance: Clinician, Researcher, and Service User Partnerships to Identify the Top Ten Research Priorities Jon Taylor: The development of therapeutic communities as a residential treatment option for prisoners with Intellectual Disabilities and Personality Disorder	Symposium: Lincolnshire Personality Disorder Project Kerry Beckley : The PD Pathway: A Schema Informed Approach Dan Page & Helena Wilks: The PD Specialist Offender Manager Felicity Nichols: The Pathway in Practice Rose Bishop: Breaking Down the Iron Curtain: The Eastern European Offender
19.30	Gala Dinner at the Doddington Hall Transport to the Hall will be in two phases. A coach will leave Bentley Hotel at 18.40 and also at 19.10 and return similarly to the Bentley Hotel at 22.50 and 23.20. We would like roughly equal numbers to go on each journey so your preferences will be determined shortly after registration. Doddington Hall is a beautiful building dating from 1595 with excellent views towards Lincoln Cathedral

Thursday 20th

9.00 – 10.30	Parallel Sessions
	Emerald Suite Chair: Eddie Kane	Ruby Suite Chair: Peter Tyrer	Sapphire Suite Chair: Mary McMurrans
	Practical aspects in managing personality disorders Gillie Ruscombe-King et al: pathway to engagement Berthollier et al: Breaking the Cycle of Rejection revisited: the ASSiST programme as an alternative to hospital admission	Systematic reviews of personality disorder Giles Newton-Howes: Updated systematic review of the effect of personality and depression Lavanya Thana: Understanding adverse outcomes in the psychotherapeutic treatments of mental health disorders : A systematic Review	Engaging community patients in the Nottingham City PD Therapy Team Sarah Mundell: Papers to follow

	Van Bilsen: Lessons we can learn from Opera Stan Renwick: Addressing the Interpersonal Difficulties of Personality Disordered Offenders: The Development and Application of a Multi-Factorial Approach to Therapeutic Intervention	Piyal Sen: Personality disorders within secure settings: a systematic review Janet Feigenbaum: Personality disorder and employment: a review of the literature
10.30 – 10.45	Refreshments
10.45 – 11.40	Plenary Lecture – Diamond Suite: Dr Kenneth Silk, Professor of Psychiatry, University of Michigan 'What is the diagnostic future of borderline personality disorder?' Vote of thanks
11.45 – 13.15	Parallel sessions
	Emerald Suite Chair: Janet Feigenbaum	Ruby Suite Chair: Rex Haigh	Sapphire Suite Chair: Kate Davidson
	STEPPS from organisation to experience Renee Harvey: Implementing STEPPS (Systems Training for Emotional Predictability and Problem Solving) in different service settings in the United Kingdom) Kay MacDonald: Organisational strategy to ensure effective implementation of personality disorder service innovations Jenny Hallett: STEPPS in the journey of recovery	Training issues Neil Gordon et al: Context sensitive workforce development: innovation and challenge in developing the offender pathway, the contribution of the KUF Robert Miller: Deconstructive Supervision, a new model of supervision for those who supervise people who work with PD Chris Gordon: Young People with Emerging Personality Disorders: A Service Proposa)	ICD-11 classification of personality disorders – value in clinical practice Dr Rahil Santinia: personality dysfunction and outcome treatment of health anxiety Prof Peter & Helen Tyrer: Long-term impact of personality disorder in neurotic disorders Giles Newton-Howes: Personality at 14years and outcomes at 30 years: can adolescent personality tell us anything?
13.15 – 14.00	Lunch
14.00 – 15.30	Poster Presentations
	Lindsay Barratt: Distress management clinics in secondary mental healthcare Stuart John Chuan: The Psychologically-Informed Consultation & Training (PICT) approach Anthony Constantinou, Mark Freestone & Jeremy Coid: Development of a Bayesian network for violence risk management This presentation will be carried out next to a small stand where interested clinicians can come and 'try out' the Bayesian network on our laptop. We can either give them a sample case or they can make up their own data and we will ask them to make a risk prediction based on the case and then let them know what the Bayesian network's prediction is. There will be prizes for people who make a prediction that agrees with the network's (and booby prizes for those who don't).

	Marisa Dias: Performance of patients with borderline personality disorder in the trust game Mark Freestone & Jeremy Coid: Personality, motivation and acute dynamic triggers for violence Rafael Gonzalez: Epidemiology of personality disorder and violence Selma Ebrahim: title to follow Vanessa Jones: A different way in Choice and Engagement in a therapeutic service for Borderline Personality Disorder Vanessa Jones: Growing Better Lives: Green therapies for Personality Disorders Emma McQuillan: Mental health professionals' attitudes to working with people with personality disorders Victoria Moran: How do mental health professionals experience and make sense of managing risk in self-harm and suicide with patients diagnosed with borderline personality disorder? A study using Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis Pardis Mostajabi et al: The Treatment & Management & of Anti social Personality Disorder (ASPD), Audit of NICE Guidelines, West London MHT Kiki Olajide: Predictors of Detention in Patients with Personality Disorder Stan Renwick: Enhancing the problem solving competencies of personality disordered offenders: meeting the challenges of the real world Kate Saunders: Insensitivity to the magnitude of potential gains or losses when making risky choices: women with borderline personality disorder compared with bipolar disorder and controls Peter Tyrer: Common mental disorders do not require specific treatment in the absence of personality dysfunction: a clear pathway of evidence Peter Tyrer, Conor Duggan, Sylvia Cooper, Barbara Barrett and Helen Tyrer: The legacy of the programme for Dangerous and Sever Personality Disorders
15.30 – 15.45	Refreshments
15.45 – 17.45	Parallel Sessions
	Emerald Suite Chair: Dr Mark Sampson	Ruby Suite Chair: Anthony Bateman	Sapphire Suite Chair: Steve Pearce
	Learning together – value of experts by experience Rex Haigh: Service user involvement throughout the life of the national personality disorder development programme	Medication on personality disorder Umana Khan and Venkatesh Ballagere Hanumanthaiah: Prescribing of medication for people with personality disorder- a snapshot in a community mental health team	Stress, personality disorder and self-harm Jasna Munjiza & Crawford: Does exposure to catastrophic trauma lead to personality problems in adults?

	Mark Sampson: An evaluation of knowledge and understanding personality disorder awareness training: Can a co-production model be effective in a local NHS Mental Health Trust? Pete Regan & Jade Kersalls: Service user developed videos – do they provide a new approach to learning? Gary Lamph: E learning and personality disorder awareness training: Does using service user developed video's make e-learning more effective? Anthony Brown: N-Gage: Shaping forensic services through a lived experience of using them	David Coyle: An Audit of Prescribing Practice within the Belfast Trust Personality Disorder Team: Deviations from Guidelines Claire McLoughlin: Medication Review of the Patients who attend the Self Harm and Personality Disorder Team, Belfast Trust. How much do we rely on medication to contain the patients in the community	Kirsten Barnicot: Impact of post traumatic stress disorder on treatment for personality disorder David Bell: A retrospective ecological study of patient profile within Belfast Self Harm and Personality Disorder Service Janet Feigenbaum: IAPT SMI: the first year
18.00	Meeting of Executive Committee
18.30	Annual General Meeting of BIGSPD
19.30	Dinner at Bentley Hotel
20.15 – 24.00	Entertainment from 'The Business' with pop and ballads from the 1960's to the present day

Friday 21st

9.30 – 11.00	Parallel Sessions
	Emerald Suite Chair: Kate Davidson	Ruby Suite Chair: Sharon Prince	Sapphire Suite Chair: Mike Crawford
	Symposium: Risk management of personality disorder in men and women Jo Ramsden: Managing risk through responsive, psychologically informed relationships: How the Yorkshire/Humber Personality Disorder Offender Pathway Partnership (PDOPP) is developing semi specialist probation officers to work with personality disorder (2 papers) Susan Cooper & Annette McKeown: The Primrose Service: The Story so Far	Service user collaboration Kath Lovell : Challenges of effective collaborative partnerships between a national user led organisation and a number of diverse organisations. Lou Morgan: Voices from Behind Locked Doors Effecting Change in Secure Services Eleni Touroni: It takes two' – Critical reflections on what makes for effective collaboration	Matt Bruce: A new pathway for forensic community PD services) (3 papers)

	Wilson et al: In defence of the unfashionable: effectiveness of hospital therapeutic community treatment for male offenders with PD Mark McFetridge, Helen Crooke, Liat Levita & Rebecca Milner: Out of self-harms way? The relationship between specific self-injurious behaviors, trauma history and clinical outcome in the psychological therapy for women with severe Borderline Personality Disorder	Robert Glenton: Upbeat and changing the way we think O'Hanlon (The potential of touch in BPD therapy)	Luca Pozzi et al: An Evaluation of Psychosocial Treatment for Personality Disorder using the Borderline Personality Disorder Severity Index (BPDSI): Preliminary results
11.00 – 11.20	Refreshments
11.200 – 12.20	Plenary Lecture – Diamond Suite: Giles Newton Howes , University of Otago, Wellington, New Zealand 'Personality Disorder across the life span- clinical considerations and implications'
12.20 – 12.30	Discussion and vote of thanks
12.30 – 13.00	Junior Scientist Award Presentation and Senior Practitioner Award
13.00 – 14.00	Lunch
14.00	Conference close

